

The Marriage Ceremony Uniting
Kjerstin Tinka Wold
and
Sterling Germund Korstad

Love bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.

Call to Worship

P: In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

Our Lord Jesus Christ came as an invited guest to the wedding at Cana, and with His gracious presence, He brought joy and gladness to those who were there. Jesus is also with us who have gathered in His name to celebrate, with the word of God and prayer, the marriage of Sterling and Kjerstin. We are assured of God’s gracious help and guidance.

Let us pray. Loving Father, we are grateful for Your goodness in permitting us to gather as the family and friends of Sterling and Kjerstin and to share their joy on this special day. Look on them with favor, strengthen their confidence in Your firm promises, and assure them of Your abiding love. As Your son Jesus graced the wedding at Cana with His presence, so may He be with us who pray in His name.

C: Amen.

Hymn #420 “Blest Be the Tie That Binds”

Scripture Readings

Genesis 2:18, 21-24 NIV ‘84

Ephesians 5:22-33 EHV

Matthew 19:3-6 EHV

Wedding Text

1 Corinthians 13:4-8a EHV

⁴Love is patient. Love is kind. Love does not envy. It does not brag. It is not arrogant. ⁵It does not behave indecently. It is not selfish. It is not irritable. It does not keep a record of wrongs. ⁶It does not rejoice over unrighteousness but rejoices with the truth. ⁷It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.

⁸Love never comes to an end.

Bach

"They're about to say I do.

Three little letters, two little words. It's the simplest part of the day, but there's nothing simple about the things that will remain unsaid. I do means I do know I could be hurt, but I'm ready to be healed with you. It means I do want to try even when the fear of failure holds me back, and I do not know the future, but I'm ready to be surprised along the way. And I do means I do want your love and I do give you mine and nothing we do will ever be the same because you and I will be doing it all together."
